

PROCLAMATION

A PROCLAMATION OF THE TOWN COUNCIL
OF THE TOWN OF FAIRFAX
DECLARING JUNE 9, 2011 LINDA BELL DAY

WHEREAS, Linda Bell, after devoting her career to the children of the Fairfax and Ross Valley School Districts for the past 29 years, is retiring today; and

WHEREAS, Linda Bell, as the Activities Director of White Hill School, reached out to countless students as individuals and guided them through the perils and joys of middle school by listening to their woes (and the woes and worries of their parents), and by giving them a chance to shine when they felt deserted by friends and sunk in social turmoil; and

WHEREAS, Linda Bell planned, decorated, and chaperoned dances (and consoled heartbroken dancers), sponsored the yearbook and was the photographer always taking the time and effort to guarantee that everyone would look their best in its pages, ran the student store, sponsored all student crews, sponsored student council and managed all lunchtime activities with endless patience and bull horn readiness; and

WHEREAS, Linda Bell has made all the difference for White Hill School students who will never forget her or the fun she brought and the special, loving, wise attention she gave them, and did much more that cannot fit in a single proclamation.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY PROCLAIMED by the Town Council of the Town of Fairfax that June 9, 2011 is Linda Bell Day and be it further resolved that White Hill School will never be the same without Linda Bell.

Approved by unanimous vote of the Town Council of the Town of Fairfax on the first day of June, 2011.
