Fiscal Impact of the November Propositions An Overview of Propositions 30 and 38 And What They Will Mean for Ross Valley Children

SAN ANSELMO, Calif., September 21, 2012 – The Ross Valley School District's financial future will be significantly impacted by two dueling propositions on the November 2012 ballot, Proposition 30 and Proposition 38. The District will present information to help our community understand:

- A brief history of school finance in California
- The current condition of finances for Ross Valley Schools
- Differences between the two Propositions
- How the propositions will impact Ross Valley Schools

Jim Cerreta, the school district Business Manager, will present this information and be available to answer questions. Presentations are scheduled for parents and staff at each school as well as the Town of San Anselmo, Town of Fairfax and the Rotary Club of Ross Valley. Attached is a list of scheduled meetings with date, time and location information.

About Ross Valley School District

The Ross Valley School District (RVSD) serves the towns of Fairfax and San Anselmo with four elementary schools and one middle school. Superintendent Eileen Rohan oversees the District. RVSD is dedicated to providing the quality educational experience that all students deserve, which is grounded in best practices, reflects the highest academic standards, and is responsive to community expectations. The District maintains its focus on students and is committed to providing a program of academic excellence; cultural richness; and social, emotional and physical development to educate, support, challenge and inspires the whole child. For more information, contact the school district at 415.454.2162 or visit the District's website at www.rossvalleyschools.org.
